

2017 ANNUAL REPORT

“

ICL took the diverse pieces of our thinking and made it into something whole. Our level of thinking when we started the process was vague and hopeful, and ICL took that and put it into a practical process for achieving our vision. That was truly a gift.

Kerry Leigh, Executive Director,
Natural Land Institute
Rockford, IL

“

I participated in a leadership training from ICL years ago, and there are still principals that I apply in my work. Much of my success I've had as an executive in my organization is due to the great training and skills that ICL has shared with me and I have in turn shared with others.

Dan Rice, President and CEO,
Ohio and Erie Canalway Coalition
Akron, OH

“

Leadership training with ICL not only made me aware of my strengths and what skills I can improve, it gave me the tools to do so. The power of this training, the resources ICL provided, and the bonds created from the workshops will be with me in perpetuity.

Kira Davis, Program Director,
Conservation Resource Alliance
Traverse City, MI

“

ICL gave us the opportunity to see ourselves - and what we need to strengthen our team and take on our challenges - just a little more clearly. With the right leadership team in place, and some of our most ambitious work just getting underway, I feel that our organization (and watershed!) is poised for greatness.

Jennifer Adkins, Executive Director,
Partnership for the Delaware Estuary
Wilmington, DE

“

ICL has a large toolbox and a deep understanding of how to support the whole organization. They are grounded in thinking both philosophically and strategically around bringing groups together to do more than they could do separately. They asked the right questions to refine the meeting objectives, get the right people in the room, and create an action-oriented agenda.

Matt Gray,
Chief of Sustainability,
City of Cleveland
Cleveland, OH
